Singing Quakers Alumni Choir

Founded in 1994 by Dr. Cecil Riney, the choir is composed of 70+ voices and represents seven decades of former Singing Quaker Alumni and continues the more than one hundred year tradition of excellence established with the world renowned Singing Quakers. The Alumni Choir performs an annual Fall Concert with other venues throughout the year.

The choir has performed for the Kansas Music Educators Association, Youth Horizons, and other various organizations. Since Dr. Riney's retirement as director in 2017, he has taken on an advisory role with Eric Stone now directing.

Singing Quakers Alumni Choir

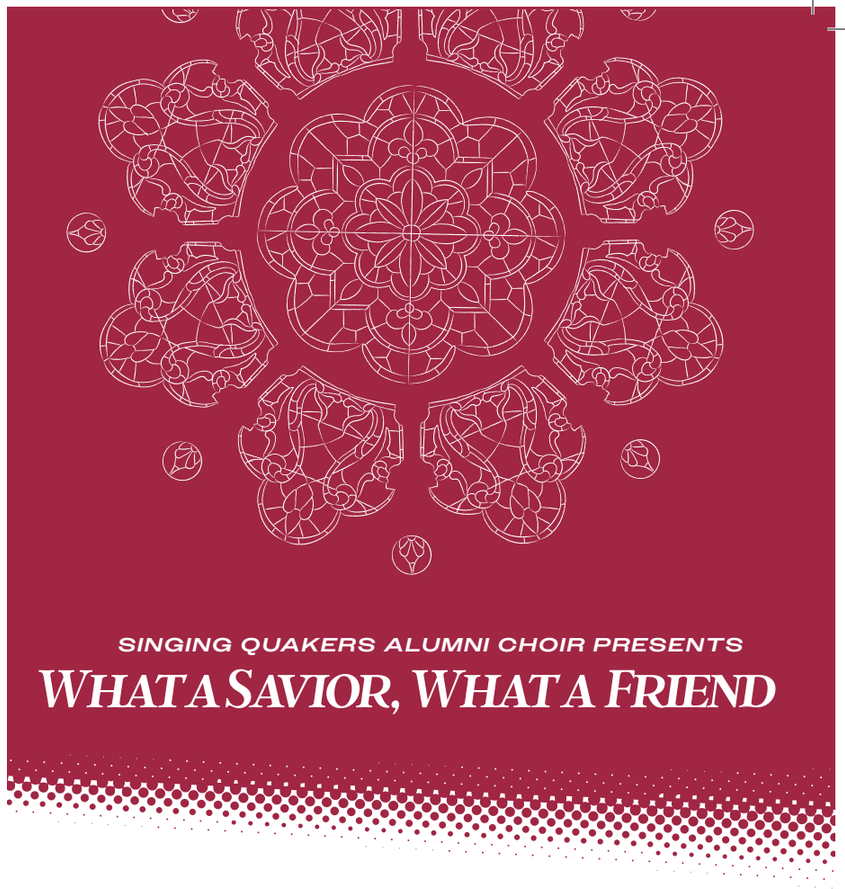

Endowment

The choir is solely funded by ticket sales to our concert tonight and gifts to our endowment. Each year we receive donations from patrons who generously share our vision and help keep it alive.

Together, we can continue to make beautiful music for years to come. Thank you for coming this evening. We appreciate your support in the future.

What a Savior, What a Friend

Featuring Dr. Kevin Fenton
Guest Conductor

Eric D. Stone
Conductor

Dr. James Knight
Accompanist

Saturday, Nov. 8, 2025 | 7:30 p.m.

Eastminster Presbyterian Church

Dr. Kevin Fenton
Guest Conductor

Dr. Kevin Fenton is professor of choral conducting and ensembles at Florida State University, where he conducts the FSU University Singers and Collegians (TB ensemble).
He has conducted the Virginia Tech Meistersingers (1998), the University Singers (2002, 2003, 2006, 2007 and 2013), and the Festival Singers of Florida (2012 and 2018) in performances at regional and national conventions of ACDA and NAfME. Dr. Fenton has conducted choirs in 39 states, including thirty All-State choirs.

Additionally, he has conducted the ACDA Southern Division High School Honor Choir (2008), the Dublin Ireland International Choral Festival (2016), the Xi'an China International Choral Festival (2017), the Samarang Music Society AVoice4Peace concert in Indonesia (2017 and 2019) and was festival director for The Magoso School of Kibera Benefit Concert in Nairobi, Kenya (2023).

Dr. Fenton teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in choral literature and choral conducting. Graduating in 1984 with a Bachelor's of Music in Music Education, Fenton then wrote his doctoral thesis on the history of the Singing Quakers. Additionally, his textbook Foundations of Choral Conducting has been adopted throughout the country. [Dr. Fenton biography continued inside.]

Dr. Kevin Fenton
Guest Conductor

[Cont.] He is a recipient of the Florida State University Teaching Award for Excellence, the Wayne Hugoboom Distinguished Florida Service Award, and the Gamma Mu Chapter of Delta Omicron Music Professor of the Year award.

Dr. Fenton taught at the Kenya Conservatoire of Music as a Fulbright Specialist to Sub-Saharan Africa, and he is in his nineteenth year as Artistic Director of the Festival Singers of Florida–a choir of music educators and performers dedicated to "inspiring and engaging through impassioned singing."

A champion of new music, Dr. Fenton has conducted over forty premiere performances including Skip Stradtman's "Psalm 91" (2022); Andrea Clearfields's Transformed by Fire: Choral Suite (2022) and Kyle Pederson's A Vision Unfolding (2022).'

Eric Stone
Director

The Alumni choir is directed by Eric Stone, pastor of Worship Arts at Country Acres Baptist Church since August 1994.

Stone is a former Singing Quaker, and graduated from Friends University with his Bachelor's in Fine Arts. He then went on to graduate from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary with his Masters in Music. He was the Assistant Director under founder Dr. Cecil J. Riney, since 1994, until Dr. Riney's retirement. Stone resides in Wichita with his wife, Verlinda, and two adult children.
